6. MATTERS ARISING / MATERION YN CODI

- Community Council Rubbish collector – Following advertisements for the rubbish collector job it was disclosed that Dylan Thomas, Castell Du had been the only applicant and that he was fully worthy of the job in question/Yn dilyn hysbysiad o'r swydd uchod, datgelwyd mai Dylan Thomas

Castell Du oedd yr unig ymgeisydd a'i fod yn llawn deilwng o'r swydd dan sylw.

- Church Hall/Neuadd yr Eglwys – No further communication has been made to date.
- Daffodils had been planted in the planters and Begonias ordered for summer.
- Cllr Euros Davies was thanked for enabling the Community Council to meet on Zoom/Diolchwyd i'r Cyng Euros Davies am ei barodrwydd i alluogi y Cyngor Cymuned ddefnyddio Zoom.
- It was noted that the road between Hendryd square and Fish and Anchor had been swept and that the County Council had passed the case forward for future works.
- Parking in Lampeter – It was noted by Cllr Euros Davies that this matter had been raised at County Council level and that there was a great deal of dissatisfaction shown by the Councillors within the County with regards to this. He noted that people were of the opinion that the ticket machines at the car parks should provide both coin and card paying options and that Llanwenog CC had arranged a meeting with Ben Lake MP and Elin Jones AM to discuss this further and also questioning why there were so many vacant shops in Lampeter.

7. CORRESPONDENCE / GOHEBIAETH
